REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING MARCH 11TH, 1858.

TURPENTINE-The market has ruled steady since our review of Thursday last, and quotations remain unchanged -The demand during the week has been confined principally to distillers, who have taken parcels on arrival at $2 65 for virgin and vellow dip, and $1 55 for hard, $2 280 lbs .- the and the receipts 8,500 bales. market closing with rather more firmness. The receipts for the week have been light, and the sales foot up only 5,186 bbls., as follows:

COFFEE-Remains as reported for several weeks past .-Dealers have a moderate stock of most descriptions in store and we note only a light demand. See table 1 x rates. CORN MEAL.-The market is very well supplied, and demand confined to small lots for retailing purposes. We et quiet. Cotton opened steady at yesterday's rates, with a quote at 70 a 75 cents 2 bushel, as in quantity.

On Monday the Europa's news was received, but it had no visible effect on the market here, and only one small sale was effected at 113 cents for strict middling. On Wednesday the news by the steamer Canada was received, reporting a further advance in Europe, and 50 bales were taken at 113 cents for middling-which is an advance of } cent for the week. At the time of closing our review there is more activity manifest, and prices tend

FISH-The market is very well stocked with Herring, and with a limited demand has ruled dull. We quote at $3 50 to $4 50 $\ bbl., according to quantity and quality. Other descriptions are in light supply, and we refer to table for store

FLOUR .- We have no material change to report in this article. The receipts of State brands continue small, though the supply of the finer qualities at present on market is fully equal to the demand, as buyers are anticipating a decline in price, and consequently purchase sparingly. On Saturday last a lot went at $5 60 for superfine and $5 85 for family, 30 days-though some smaller parcels have sold from store at $5 75 for superfine and family. The lower grades are scarce, and in rather more enquiry, and rates a shade higher than our quotations might be obtained for a few parcels. See & Bro.; with mdze. table for quotations of the different grades.

GRAIN.-In CORN we have nothing new to notice since our review of this day week. Dealers have a full supply on hand, and we note but little inquiry at present; in the absence of receipts we have no sales to report, and therefore quote riss & Howell. nominally at 54 cents per bushel, which was last cargo sale. OATS None arrived for several weeks past, and we have nothing to report in the way of transactions. The with mdze. demand is light, and supply on market fully fair. We quote nominally at 40 a 42 cents per bushel. Peas-Cow have been brought to market slowly for some time past, and the quantity in dealers hands is exceedingly small .-We quote at $1 10 a $1 15 per bushel. No other description on market .---- RICE-Clean continues to be brought in quite freely, and the market is well suppled. We note only a light demand from the trade, and quote at 3 a 31 cents per lb., as in quantity.

HAY-We note but a light inquiry for this article, and the market is very well supplied. No receipts of Eastern. One lot of 125 bales Northern was received on Wednesday, but not yet sold. On Thursday last a lot of 60 bales Eastern (damaged) sold at auction at 424 a 50 cents. LIME-None received. Fair supply of former arrivals in dealers hands, and merely a retail demand. Selling in the small way at $1 25 78 cask. LUMBER-River-Is in some demand, and receipts meagre. Sale a few days since of two rafts at $6 for scantling, and $7.50 W. for wide hoards. Molasses-No Cuba received since our last, and none on market except small lots in retailers hands. See table for store rates. We note the receipt from New Orleans a day or two since of 100 bbls. Molasses and 150 do. Syrup-the former is selling from wharf at 34 a 36 cents, and the latter at 371 a 40 cents # gallon, according to quantity.

PEA NUTS-Have been brought to market very sparingly during the past week, and we note a brisk demand from dealers. Parcels find ready sale at 90 cents to $1 05 7 bushel, as in quality.

POTATOES-Very few Sweet are now arriving, and scarcely any on market; sell at 90 cents to $1 76 bushel. Irish are in rather better demand for planting purposes, and market well supplied :- sell in the small way at $3 a $3 25 79

PROVISIONS-For N. C. cured Bacon there has been more inquiry during the week just ended, but in consequence of the small quantity arriving very few transactions have taken place. We quote one or two small lots having changed hands at 13 cents for hog round, and 14 cents # 16, for hams ;-the market is firm at above rates, and a good article would find ready sale. In Western cured we have no change of importance to make. There is scarcely any demand, and moderate stock on market. We quote at 84 a 10 cents for shoulders, and 11 a 111 cents for sides, as in quantity and quality. -LARD-N. C. make is brought to market sparingly, and none now in first hands; sells readily at 12 a 13 cents # 1b. Western is in moderate stock, and dull at 11 a 111 cents. in bbls. and kegs .- Pork-Northern remains without alteration on last week's prices, and we refer to table for store rates. Fresh is in active demand, and very little coming in; sells from carts at 9 a 10 cents $\mathcal{H}$ ib. Sugar-A lot of 100 hhds. was received a day or two since from New Orleans, and selling from wharf at 61 to 81 cents # lb., as in quantity and quality.

Salt-The cargo of Alum (4,800 bushels) previously reported on market, changed hands in the .early part of the week on private terms. No receipts of Liverpool. Market well supplied with both descriptions, and quotations in table represent store rates.

Shingles-None of consequence arriving, and no sales worthy of note. Quotations in table are merely nominal. STAVES AND HEADING-Arrive slowly, and sales small. A lot of 6,000 W. O. Bbl. Staves sold a few days since at $16 for rough; and 4,000 pieces Ash Heading at $8 50 7 M. TIMBER-The arrivals for the past week have been exceedingly small, and with a better demand for mill purposes the market rules firmer. We have, however, to report sales of
